Tomorrow is the Glorious Fourth.
Mrs. Frank Phillips has been quite sick the past week.
A large crowd thronged our streets last Saturday evening.

A number of young people from here spent Sunday in Lakeport.

Mrs. Jack Johnson is in the hospital at Ann Arbor undergoing treatment.

Ben Lane caught a fine 6½ pound pike up creek on Saturday of last week.

Haying has commenced and the farmers are busy cutting a plentiful crop.

A marriage licence has been issued for Bert Brown, 23, and Nina Rapley, 24, both of Yale.

Rev. Gibbs, of Philadelphia, will preach in the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning.

A marriage licence has been issued for Walter Sheneith, aged 40 and Ella Leander, both of Lyon.

A welcome sign is that in front of the meat market—"Meat Prices Lower." We can now give up our egg diet.

Manley & Howse, of Port Huron, are painting Wm. Morsehead's house at the north end of our city this week.

From all reports the Delaney show last Saturday evening was anything but good. A slim crowd was present.

Soon the busy hum of the mowing machine will be heard. The prospects now are for an enormous crop of hay this season.

We had a superabundance of those disagreeable fish flies last Saturday. We are indeed thankful that they only come once a year.

The storm last Friday certainly hit the country north of us in great shape. A large amount of damage was done to barns, houses, etc.

Too many young people depend on their father's money taking them through this world, and their mothers' prayers making everything all right in the next.

W. V. Andrae last week purchased a Buick touring car of Geo. Youkum, of Port Huron. Will can now have a glorious time.

Wells Tavern at Memphis was burned to the ground last Friday. Loss about $10,000, with little insurance. The building had just been completed a week or more.

At the Bethel Church Fair held on Friday, June 26, the ladies of the church cleared $50. The ladies wish to thank the Yale merchants who donated things for the fair.

Rev. Sims, of Saginaw, has been secured to preach the annual L.O.L. sermon in the Cole church west and south of Yale on Sunday, July 5 at 10:30 a. m. Everyone is cordially invited to attend.

The members of the Methodist Episcopal church choir on Tuesday journeyed to Mason's the other side of Brockway in a lumber wagon, and enjoyed a very pleasant time fishing and picnicing.

C. J. Darwood, of Port Huron, who has been here the past week on his annual piano tuning tour could not finish all the pianos during his stay here, but will return to Yale July 6 or 7 and complete his work.

The Elmer Creamery Co. shipped 7,500 pounds of butter from here last Monday. Mr. Kerr, the manager of the plant, informs the Republican that he intends to make a still larger shipment next week—Sanitar County Republican.

Dr. C. J. Sullivan, eye specialist of Port Huron, will be at the Paisley Hotel, Yale, Thursday, July 9th. Persons having eye trouble, needing glasses fitted or lenses changed, should not fail to call at the hotel. Regular visits made hereafter.

Henry Cope of near Yale has filed a petition in the probate court, asking for the appointment of a guardian for his mother, Eliza Kitchen, aged 85 years. The old lady draws a pension and is not competent to sign the vouchers and transact other business.

I wish to thank the many neighbors and friends for kindnesses and assistance during the sickness and after the death of my beloved wife also to the choir for rendering such sweet music and to others for beautiful floral offerings. GEO. BENTLEY.

Next Sunday evening union services of all churches will be held in the City Park, commencing at 6:45 o'clock. Rev. Gibbs, of Philadelphia, will preach the sermon. Everyone should plan on attending these services as they will be continued each Sunday during the warm weather.

W. A. Knowles, Warren Boardway and E. H. Drake went to Port Huron Saturday to spend the day fishing. Luck was certainly with them for they brought home ninety-four beauties. Owing to the generosity of Mr. Knowles the publisher and family enjoyed a fish dinner on Sunday.

On Monday morning Rev. Lester Clark drove his bay horse to Saginaw and sold him while there. Mr. Clark could easily have made the trip in one day but the rain Monday afternoon hindered so much that he was compelled to lay over in Vassar all night. He reached Saginaw Tuesday morning at nine o'clock. He received $200 for the horse.

While in conversation with Anthony Welch on Wednesday of this week, he informed us that he celebrated his eighty-first birthday on Saturday, June 27. For fifty-four years he has been in Yale and every year has voted, mostly the Republican ticket. Mr. Welch is one of the founders of our city and is one of the oldest of our pioneers. He is very active despite his advanced age. The Expositor wishes Mr. Welch many more pleasant birthdays.

Farmers maybe interested to know that the law regarding payment for sheep killed by dogs was changed by the last legislature. Formerly the law was such that if the losses exceeded the amount in the dog fund those who had losses were obliged to take their pro-rata of the fund and call it square. The new law fixes it so that if there is not money enough in the dog fund to pay all claims in full the balance remaining unpaid shall stand as claims against the dog fund until paid in full.

OBITUARY.

Be still prepared for death and death of life shall thereby be the sweeter.—Shakespeare.

Died, at her home south of Yale, on Monday, June 29, 1908, Mrs. George Bentley, of liver trouble.

Christina McDougall was born in Lobo, Ont., March 1, 1838. She was married to George Bentley, October 27, 1873, and one son was born to this union, Duncan Bentley, of Saginaw. The family moved to Michigan in 1873, locating at Imlay City. From there they went to Deannville, thence coming to Yale in November of 1890 and settling on the farm south of this city.

She united with the Church of Christ in the early '60s and has been a consistent christian worker ever since.

Beside the husband and son, Mrs. John Purcell, of Albion, Ont., Mrs. Abner White of Iowa; Mrs. Walter Gunn, Miss Kate and Maggie McDougall of Brown City are left to mourn the death of a loved one. Funeral services were held in the Mechanic street Church of Christ on Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, Rev. J. A. Bullock, assisted by J. Murray Taylor of Saginaw, conducting the services. Interment was made in Elmwood cemetery.

Edwin Frank Robinson, of Rochester, aged 64 years, died Thursday afternoon, June 11th. Death was caused by valvular heart trouble. Deceased had been a resident there for several years and was a stone mason by trade. He leaves a wife, one son, Frank Robinson, and three daughters, Mrs. Lou Sturgis of Rochester, Mrs. Bern Hyatt of Pontiac, and Mrs. G. W. Horton of St. Louis, Mo. Funeral services were held from the home at 2:30 o'clock, Sunday, June 14. Rev. D. H. Yokum of the M. E. church officiated. Interment was made in Rochester cemetery. Mr. Robinson was a resident of Yale some twelve or fourteen years ago.

While weeding onions in the garden Saturday night, Nelson Smith, a prominent farmer of Blaine, fell dead. He was 67 years of age. Justice of the Peace John Ross and the family physician were summoned and decided that death was due to sun stroke. He was well known to a large number. He is survived by a widow, eight sons and a daughter. The funeral was held from the home Tuesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock and the interment took place at Lakeport.

GRAND GAME.

A laughable ball game was pulled off at the City Park last Friday afternoon when the Brockway Farmers and Yale Business Men clashed. Up to the eighth the game was all one-sided, the Business Men having such a number of scores they didn't know what to do with them. But the 9th showed they were useful when the farmers ran in six scores. The business men however pulled themselves together and ran in 3, making the score 13 to 12.

Learnmont and Carson both pitched good ball, excluding a little wildness. "Bill" Campbell seemed to give universal (?) satisfaction as an umpire. The lineup:

Can You Afford It?

Can you afford to buy cheap drugs?

Can you afford to have your prescriptions filled at any place where there is doubt about its absolute purity?

Of course you can't. Absolutely pure drugs cannot be sold for less than we sell them and the seller stay in business. Better pay a trifle more and have faith in the medicine being right than lie on a bed of doubt about the purity and genuineness of what you are taking.
